-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the corresponding address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 25 November 2003.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

Election/R strictions

Claims 2-7, 12, 13, 15, 16, 20-29, and 31-37 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper Numbers 11 and 15. Claim 9 was rejoined with the elected claims because it is an intervening claim to claim 10 which was said to be drawn to the elected species.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

On page 1 of the specification, the continuing data does not give the relationship (e.g. continuation-in-part) of the parent application to the present application. In addition, the continuing data is not updated with the current status of the parent application(s) as patented or abandoned.

The title is not descriptive of the claimed invention.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 11, on line 2, "acids" should be changed to ---acid--- in order to be less grammatically awkward. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

Art Unit: 3738

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 17-19, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fearnot et al (US 5,609,629). Fearnot anticipates the claim language where the implant with the outer surface as claimed is met by implant (10) with structure (12) and base material (14) of Fearnot; see Figure 2 and column 6. The bioactive polymer layer with nanoparticles or liposomes as claimed is met by the disclosure on column 14, lines 12-29 of Fearnot. Finally, the bioactive tissue response modifier as claimed is disclosed on column 3, lines 30-49 of Fearnot.

Claims 1, 8-11, 14, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)* as being anticipated by Hubbell et al (US 5,801,033). Hubbell anticipates the claim language where the tissue response modifier is the agent or material released by the encapsulated cells to have a therapeutic purpose in the patient; see the abstract, column 5, line 40 to column 6, line 34 and column 10, line 33 to column 11, line 51.

With regard to claim 9, the gels of Hubbell are hydrogels since they are hydrophilic; see column 10, line 33 to column 11, line 51.

*The effective filing date of the present claims is considered to be January 31, 2002. However, if upon more careful analysis, the claims are found to have an effective filing date of the provisional application, then the Hubbell reference would still constitute a valid Section 102(e) reference.

Conclusion

The prior art cited that was not applied is considered relevant to the claimed invention.

Applicant should specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure, including the claims (MPEP 714.02 and 2163.06). Due to the procedure outlined in MPEP 2163.06 for interpreting claims, it is noted that other art may be applicable under 35 USC 102 of 35 USC 103(a) once the aforementioned issue(s) is/are addressed.

Applicant is respectfully requested to provide a list of all copending applications that set forth similar subject matter to the present claims. A copy of such copending claims is respectfully requested in response to this Office action.
